Being a column in which the publisher just "blows off the steam."

TODAY

ONE HAMLIN WOMAN recently returned from her vacation is reported to have gone into Waggoner Drug and asked Jerry:

"Have you anything that's good for mosquito bites on top of poison ivy over sunburn?"

DOUGLAS MEADOR writes an interesting and thought provoking column in The Matador Tribune every week. We lift the following words from a recent issue of the publication:

Frequently tempted, I have tried to avoid all forms of envy. After a lifetime of frustration I continue to believe I can have anything within reason if I will work hard enough for it.

I once worked hard for two years in an effort to acquire enough money to buy a Saxon roadster like one owned by an acquaintance.

It was during a period of drouth and my work was lost, but the Saxon owner must have failed to find happiness.

He shot a hole through his head one night.

A HAMLIN WISEACRE has come to a definite conclusion about the young folks of today. He says:

One reason so many children are seen on the streets at night is that they're afraid to stay home alone.

AFTER WEEKS of painstaking effort, a Stamford hunter taught his retrieving dog to bring back ducks by walking upon the surface of the water rather than swimming out after them.

He wished to show off this wonder dog to a Hamlin friend, so without a word about it they went hunting together out at the Paint Creek Lake.

When the owner shot his first duck, he sent the dog out after it. The dog walked lightly upon the water, retrieved the duck, and walked back to deposit the bird at his master's feet.

"Notice anything?" asked the master expectantly.

"Sure," answered the Hamlin friend. "That crazy dog of yours can't swim!"

THE WAY to have teeth with which you can crack nuts is to refrain from cracking nuts with your teeth, says The Transmitter, and continues:

The way to have a stomach in which you can put practically any kind of food is to refrain from putting practically any kind of food into your stomach.

The way to have eyes with which you can read fine print in a poor light is to refrain from reading fine print in a poor light.

The way to have friends who would give you the shirts off their respective backs is to refrain from asking them for their shirts.

The way to make friends with a traffic cop so that he will overlook slight infractions of the traffic rules is to avoid slight infractions of the traffic rules.

AN EXPRESSMAN was handling a parcel on which a label had been badly torn. He had been warned to pay strict attention to labels, so he tried to put the pieces of the label together, and this is what he finally got: HIT CAR AND WHEEL!

It was plain to see that this was not correct. Expressmen and postmen often have hard nuts to crack, for some people are careless when addressing letters and packages. But this expressman handled the parcel as directed, because he read the label correctly. What would you have done, and what was on the label originally?

(The expressman jumbled up the letters in putting the label together. It read originally, "Handle with Care!")

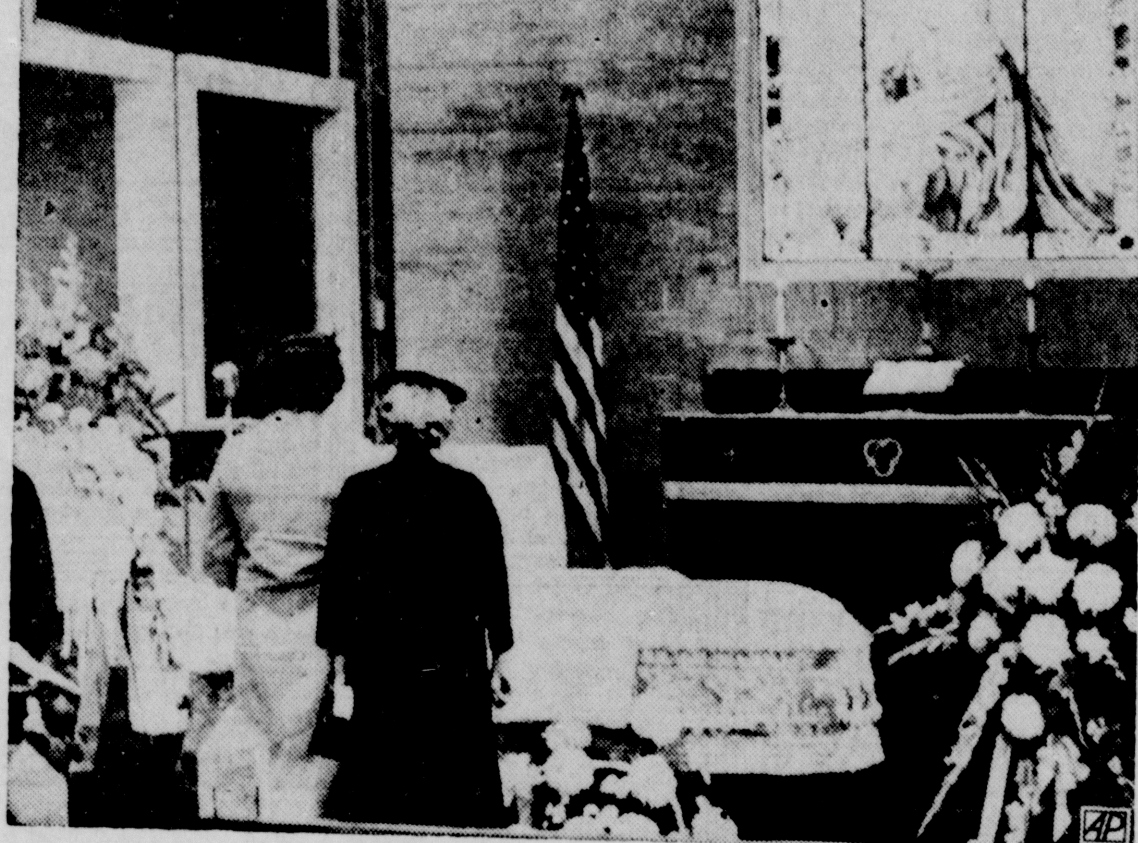

New Cub Scouts and Mothers Registered

New den mothers and Cubs were registered.

Next meeting of the pack will be October 29, it was announced.

Homecoming Registration of HHS Exes Will Begin Monday

Replies Coming In by Scores from Farmer Students

Replies of intention to attend the second annual Hamlin High School homecoming are coming in by the score from exes scattered over several states, reports Mrs. Bill Shira, secretary of the HHS Ex-Students Association, sponsor of the get-together of former students of the school.

With several hundred more addresses available this year than last year's first homecoming, the ex-student group mailed out more than 1,700 double postcards announcing this year's celebration. The replies are coming in readily, the secretary reports.

Pre-registration of former students living in the Hamlin area will begin next Monday at the high school offices, according to Cliff Reynolds Jr., president of the ex-student association. He urges that everyone possible participate in the advance registration in order to avoid as much congestion on Friday at the registration of out-of-town attendants.

As outlined previously, homecoming festivities will get underway Friday afternoon at 3:30 with out-of-town registration. A football game between the Pied Pipers and the Colorado City Wolves will be featured at 8:00 o'clock. Following the game a coffee will be staged at the high school cafeteria.

Registration will continue Saturday morning at the high school building. Business and class meetings will be held in the auditorium at 9:30 a. m. At 1:00 p. m. a barbecue will be served at the cafeteria.

Bank Deposits Holding Up Despite Continued Drouth

Despite the continued drouth that has plagued the Hamlin territory for several years, the financial stability of the community remains good, if the official bank statement of the Farmers & Merchants National Bank for September 26 is to be taken as a barometer.

Although deposits in the latest report of $4,344,074.41 total about $70,000 less than the June 30 report, the total is still above the total of a year ago of $4,195,883.83, recorded in the statement at the close of business October 5, 1955.

They were the only American tourists going from Finland into Russia; however, they were joined with other American tourists once inside Russia.

Jones County Farm Bureau Names New Directors and Passes Resolutions

Discussion and adoption of some strongly worded resolutions were some of the main items of business for the county convention of the Jones County Farm Bureau, held Saturday evening at the high school auditorium at Anson. Numbers of Hamlin area farmers were among attendees.

The resolutions will be forwarded to the state convention of the Texas Farm Bureau, which convenes in Houston on November 12. Resolutions adopted by the state convention will, in turn, be sent to the national convention, and the resolutions adopted there will become the policies of the American Farm Bureau for the ensuing year.

In other business members of the Jones County Farm Bureau elected six new directors to fill the terms of those expiring this year; heard a treasury report from J. H. Doty, secretary-treasurer of the organization; heard an office report from Harris Wright, service agent; selected Dale King and Jack Morrow as delegates to the state convention; and heard a general report from President R. J. Lefever.

New directors named to the county board include: Newman West from Precinct 1; Joe Benton from Precinct 2; Mack Claiburn and Randall Lefever from Precinct 3; and Leonard McCoy and M. E. Carothers from Precinct 4.

Acreage Reserve Takes Slice, But Planting Heavy

Six previous dry years in a row have failed to dampen the ardor of Hamlin area small grain growers, and thousands of acres of wheat land will be seeded to the soil during the next few weeks.

Although hundreds of acres of wheat land have been put into the soil reserve sponsored by the Department of Agriculture, many thousands of acres of land still will be seeded in the section.

Dry sowing of small grains has been going on in a few areas of Jones County, according to Bill Lehmborg, county agent.

Recommended varieties of wheat for Jones County are Crockett, Westar, Concho, Comanche, Panco and Quannah. Acceptable varieties are Wichita and Triumph.

Wheat is usually planted one to two inches deep at the rate of 30 to 45 pounds per acre.

The seed should be treated with one of the following, according to the manufacturers' instructions: Ceresan M, Ceresan M-2X or Panogen.

Recommended varieties of oats for fall sowing are Mustang, New Nortex and Fulltex.

For barley the recommended varieties are Cordova and Harvine.

Letter Writing Week To Be Observed by Hamlin Area People

National Letter Writing Week will again be celebrated in Hamlin and Texas during the week October 7 to 13. Postmaster Perry Sparks announced this week.

Commenting on the significance of National Letter Writing Week, Sparks pointed out that each year since 1938 this event has been observed as a reminder of the real meaning of a personal letter.

Emphasizing the traditional sanctity of the letter mail, Sparks reminded Hamlin residents that one of the basic American freedoms is the uncensored transmission of their first class mail. It is the most valuable possession of the citizens of a free country.

"We all know the human importance of letter writing," Sparks stated, "the way in which holds scattered families together, of giving comfort and love and news to all the people of the land. But its value is immeasurably greater than that. Its implications are almost infinite.

"We in America have the privilege of uncensored and unlimited means of communication. With this in mind, I urge all citizens of the Hamlin area to join me in this national celebration. Let's make National Letter Writing Week for 1956 the greatest ever."

Estimated Four to Be Drafted from Area in November

About four Jones County men are scheduled to be included in the draft call for November, it is estimated on a pro rata basis of the state's call.

The state draft quota for November calls for 858 men, Colonel Morris S. Schwartz, state selective service director, said Thursday in a release to The Herald.

The quota of 858 for Texas compares with a call of 847 for October, previously announced. The November quota is the biggest monthly call received since December, 1955.

The November quota is the state's share of a national call of 17,000 men, all for the Army.

At the same time he announced the November induction quota, Colonel Schwartz also announced a November call on approximately half the state's local boards for 1,500 men to take pre-induction physical and mental examinations for future calls.

The November quota will be filled with men who are 22 years of age or older on November 1, with the exception of delinquents or volunteers, who may be younger. Colonel Schwartz said he expected the November call to be filled with volunteers and men

The new Mrs. Ellis chose for her going-away outfit a copen blue suit with white accessories and wore the orchid from her bouquet.

"Hot Flashes Stopped"

or strikingly relieved

in 63-80% of cases in doctors' tests

• If you're miserable from the "hot flashes," and accompanying irritable, restless feelings, of "change of life"—you may be suffering unnecessarily!

• For... in tests by doctors... Lydia Pinkham's Compound and Tablets brought relief from such functionally-caused suffering to 63% and 80% (respectively) of the women tested! Completely or strikingly relieved!

Yes! Research has proved these medicines thoroughly modern in action... has shown you where to look for relief from those distressing, nervous, "out of sorts" feelings of mid-life "change!"

So... Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—or new, improved Tablets with added iron! (Wonderful, too, for the functional pains of menstrual periods.)

It acts through a woman's sympathetic nervous system to relieve distress of those awful "hot waves!"

Cotton's All-Around Washability Makes It Decorator Favorite

Cotton's all-around washability and easy care have installed it as the overwhelming favorite among American housewives for home decorating.

A majority of homemakers polled by the U. S. Department of Agriculture have voted cotton as their favorite fiber for curtains, draperies, slip-covers, scatter rugs and bedspreads.

Eighty-one per cent of women who use slip-covers prefer cotton slip-covers, the government survey disclosed. Fifty-nine per cent prefer cotton for bedspreads, 37 per cent for curtains, 39 per cent for draperies, 81 per cent for scatter rugs, and 53 per cent for summer blankets. In each case, cotton's percentage was the highest of all fibers named.

The survey, released by the Department of Agriculture's Bureau of Agricultural Economics, showed that a majority of women who choose cotton do so because of cotton's laundering and cleaning properties.

Care in Use of Emergency Roughage Vital to Operation, Says County Agent

In connection with the emergency feed program now being sponsored by the Department of Agriculture in Jones County and other drouth areas of the United States, some observations and pointers are offered by County Agent Bill Lehmberg.

Two main considerations should get major attention if best use is to be made of the available feeds: (1) To use such feeds in such amounts as to keep the stock alive through a period of time; and (2) to use the feeds with some thought of maintaining production although curtailed by the supply and cost of the feed.

If there is no grass or forage available on the range or pasture, it is best to confine animals in a trap or dry lot where they will not waste energy walking in search of food. Emergency feeds will go further if livestock are so confined. This will also prevent destruction of grass from trampling after it is too short for grazing.

1. Only the strongest and most valuable stock should be kept. The calves and lambs should be weaned as early as possible.

2. Water and salt are always necessary, and the stock should have easy access to good water. A calcium or disodium phosphate mineral (bone meal, mono calcium phosphate, dicalcium phosphate) is beneficial in practically all areas and may be particularly valuable under drouth conditions.

3. Conditions govern the lower limits of feed in maintaining animals. Seventeen pounds of good hay for a cow and four pounds of good hay for a ewe or nanny is considered a maintenance feed.

The best feed should be saved for calving lambing and kidding time. Use the lower quality feeds first and save the best feeds for the weaker stock and young bred animals.

4. More care, labor and attention to stock is necessary in emergency feeding than under ordinary conditions. Two general general methods of feeding and wintering on grass have been used. Probably the most common method is to feed one or two pounds of cottonseed cake per cow or one-half pound per sheep or goat each day. The other method is to feed twice as much every second day.

In the last 20 years many operators have resorted to self feeding cottonseed meal and salt mixtures. Commonly salt and cottonseed meal mixtures range from 10 to 40 per cent of salt. Other salt mixtures may contain ground grain. One such mixture consisting of two parts ground sorghum grain, two parts cottonseed meal and one part salt is described by the Australians as a salt fodder.

The greater the ratio of meal (three to one is better) the less chance there is for permanent injury or death loss to the livestock.

Some operators feed the salt and meal mixture three or four weeks, then feed carbonaceous feeds for a like period.

Practically any kind of hay, fodder or roughage can be fed as long as it is supplemented with one to four pounds of cottonseed meal and two to four pounds of alfalfa hay in the case of cattle or one-fourth to one-third pound cottonseed meal in the case of sheep.

In addition to the commonly known hays, there are several roughage materials which have been used in emergency feeds or as a means of reducing the cost of bulk in rations. Grinding to some extent saves the stock labor in digestion, but it must be remembered that grinding does not change a roughage to a concentrate.

Cottonseed hulls are a standard well known roughage, very high in crude fibers, 30 to 45 per cent, and low in protein and productive value.

Ground cotton burs and ground cotton stalks have not been used successfully in rations for cattle although they do show higher values for protein and low content of crude fiber than cottonseed hulls.

Ground cotton gin trash, including leaf trash, a small per cent of immature seed and some lint and burs have been used to replace cottonseed hulls and as half of the roughage in mixtures containing ground alfalfa hay, ground sorghum grain and cottonseed meal. The value of cotton gin trash depends to a large extent on the percentage of immature seed and leaf trash.

Feeding molasses has been low in cost and can be self fed or mixed with ground grains and roughages. Beet, corn and cane or blackstrap molasses are available. Cane molasses contains contains from 20 to 25 per cent water and about 65 per cent nitrogen free extract. Molasses is a strictly a carbonaceous feed containing very little protein but is high in ash. It is rated as having 70 to 80 per cent of the feeding value of corn.

Wheat is perhaps the best single grain for drouth or winter feeding. It contains about three per cent more protein than corn. It should be crushed or rolled for cattle and is used to better advantage when mixed with ground corn or oats and sorghum grains. It must be hand fed in limited amounts at the outset because of danger from founder.

Oats are perhaps the best balanced grain feed and are particularly good for growing young stock.

Cottonseed is another medium protein feed. It contains approximately 20 per cent crude protein and about 77 therms of energy per 100 pounds. It is higher in productive value than 41 per cent protein cottonseed meal and approaches the productive value of the better feed grains.

The average 20 per cent protein commercially mixed cubes, meals or pellets classed as medium protein feeds contain about 50 per cent nitrogen free extract. Most of these mixtures are fortified with vitamin A and contain trace minerals.

A 20 per cent protein mixture can be obtained by mixing about 33 pounds of 41 per cent protein cottonseed meal and 67 pounds of ground corn. Less cottonseed meal would be required if wheat were used instead of corn. In fact, about 23 pounds of cottonseed meal and 77 pounds of wheat would afford a 20 per cent protein mixture.

Vitamin A deficiency can be a problem particularly after the females drop their young. Hay with green color, particularly alfalfa, supplies carotene and is certainly one of the best drouth feeds.

Stay with known feeds and good methods of feeding. Don't let the old animals get down. Even if they can be saved, it takes a lot of extra work. The use of livestock conservation practices will pay off.

Ike Better Democrat Than Adlai, Says Supporter

A bunch of us were standing around talking the other day, and the talk got around to politics like it usually does. Some of the boys said they'd voted for Ike in '52 and were going to do it again; some of them said they'd always voted the Democratic ticket straight and always expected to—you know how it goes around a little Texas town.

One fellow said something that made the rest of us stop and think. He said he was a Democrat, sure—always had been, and his father and grandfather before him. And he always felt like he had to vote for the best Democrat in the race, which he was going to do this year.

"And that means," he said, "that I'll have to cast my vote for Ike Eisenhower. He's a better Democrat, by my definition of a Democrat, than that other fellow ever will be."

And besides that, he said, Ike kept his promises to Texas and Texas ought to return the favor by keeping Ike.

You know, he might have had something there. "Gratitude" is one of the greatest words in the English language, and we all like to think of ourselves as being grateful when people do something for us. Like I heard a man say one time: "Texans are people who never forget anything that is done TO them—or FOR them." That's the way we think of ourselves, and it's about right.

This Eisenhower man pointed out that Ike promised to give the Tideland back to Texas, and he kept that promise; he promised to do his best to close out Mr. Truman's war in Korea, and he kept that promise, and he promised to give us a government in Washington that we could be proud of, because it was clean and honest and efficient—and, in this man's opinion, he had kept that promise.

"I know you're reading and hearing a lot of stuff to the contrary," he told us, "coming from Brother Stevenson and Brother Kefauver and the rest of the politicians on the other side. That's the politics for you. Everybody expects them to jump on Ike every way they can, and I guess they'll keep on doing it right up to Nov. 6. But the American people are smarter than some politicians give them credit for being, and before they vote they're going to sit down and ask themselves this question:

"Remembering 1952, when our boys were dying in Korea and the newspapers were full of talk about mink coats and Communists and corruption in Washington—now, be honest about it: If you could, would you go back to 1952 and start over with Adlai Stevenson instead of Dwight D. Eisenhower?"

This man said he wouldn't, and come to think of it, I wouldn't either. As a matter of fact, I think Ike has made us one of the best presidents we ever had. If we had to go to war, I'd certainly rather have him at the head of our government than any other living American. But even more importantly—I'm convinced he is the best man to keep us OUT of war.

That's why I still like Ike—better than ever!

Yours truly,
Gex

FOLLOWED TO THE LETTER.

A new member of a wealthy suburban community after inviting a prominent local gourmet to dinner carefully instructed his new maid how to serve each course.

"Please remember to serve the fish whole, with tail and head, and a slice of lemon in the mouth," he concluded.

The maid, following instructions to the letter, bore the fish triumphantly to the table complete with tail and head, and in her mouth she carried a slice of lemon.

Stewart Declares Russia Is Clean In Talk at Rotary

"The United Soviet Socialist Republic (USSR) is the richest nation in the world," declared Ed Stewart, Abilene candy manufacturer, when he spoke last Wednesday noon at the weekly luncheon meeting of Hamlin Rotary Club at the oil mill guest house.

He went on to show that the country occupies more than one-tenth of the world's surface, and has more than 200,000,000 people, with another 1,000,000,000 satellites under them.

More than 12,000 of 500-acre collective farms are operated in Russia under deputy commissioners of agriculture. Much fine livestock for these farms has been bought by the government in America.

Leningrad and Moscow are almost spotless—no litter, no beggars. However, sheer nylon hose sell for $8 in American money, Stewart declared.

Highlight of the entire trip of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart to Russia was a visit to the Kremlin and Lenin's tomb, they averred.

Besides regular members, there were several invited guests at the luncheon meeting.

JUST BROWSING.

Methodists of Anson, Hamlin Set Contest

An overall church-wide attendance contest will begin this week between the First Methodist Church in Anson and the First Methodist Church in Hamlin, it is announced by the local pastor, Rev. Darris L. Egger. The contest will be based on total attendance of the morning and evening worship hours on Sunday, the Sunday school attendance, the mid-week service and the Methodist Men.

The rivalry will last through December. The losing church will then host the winning church to a fellowship feed and program.

An out-of-town speaker will talk on proposed constitutional amendment No. 4 when the Elementary Parent-Teacher Association meets this (Thursday) afternoon at 3:45 o'clock at the Primary School cafeteria, it is announced by P-TA officials.

I love these little people; and it is not a slight thing, when they, who are so fresh from God, love us.—Dickens.

Mrs. Nellie Money Dies Friday After Brief Illness Here

Funeral services were conducted for Mrs. Nellie Elizabeth Money 81-year-old Hamlin housewife, at the First Baptist Church Sunday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock. Mrs. Money died Friday after an illness of about a week.

Officiating at the rites were Rev. Frank Foster of Aspermont and Rev. Woodrow McHugh, pastor of the North Central Avenue Baptist Church.

Mrs. Money was a native of Hunt County, having been born December 5, 1874, as the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Carter. She married L. E. Money on October 9, 1890, at Greenville. She had been a resident of the Hamlin community for 31 years. She was a member of the First Baptist Church.

Burial was in the Hamlin East Cemetery under the direction of Hamlin Funeral Home. Pallbearers were Johnny Hines, Sigmund Stovall, Ira Clements, A. C. Tidwell, H. A. Brown and Connie O'Neal.

The octogenarian is survived by four sons, Lee and Elvan Money of Hamlin, H. I. Money of Dallas and Troy Money of Wickett; six daughters, Mrs. Hattie Richardson of Arlington, Mrs. Ollie Coker of Hendrix, Oklahoma, Mrs. Deborah Harold of Aspermont, Mrs. Vera Davis of Abilene, Pearl Money of Dallas and Mrs. Edna Minor of Hereford; 26 grandchildren and 21 great-grandchildren.

HOW'S THAT AGAIN, DOC?

"Don't worry about your son for one minute," the doctor reassured the anxious mother. "It's perfectly normal for him to like making mud pies—and just as much so if he sometimes tries to eat them."

"Well I don't think it's normal," snapped the mother, "and neither does his wife!"

Sorghum-Grass Hybrid Adapted to Area, Says Agent

Sorghum alnum, a new grass, is gaining the interest of farmers and ranchers of Jones County, according to Bill Lehmborg, county agent. It is a natural cross between Johnson grass and some unknown sorghum and was selected by J. R. Parodi in Argentina.

Sorghum alnum is similar in appearance to sudan and Johnson grass. It grows taller than either and has wider leaves. It is a perennial but probably will not consistently survive the winter in this area.

The Chillicothe and Lubbock experiment stations have been growing this grass for more than 10 years. It was not considered outstanding and was not increased by the Texas stations. Small scale grazing tests at Beeville indicate that it was little less palatable than common sudan. The seed shatter readily, making seed harvest a problem. The grass has pithy, non-sweet stalks.

Johnson grass-sorghum and Johnson grass-sudan hybrids with sweet juicy stems are being tested.

ed at Lubbock, but seed is not available this year.

Small scale trial plantings to compare the new grass with sudan, Johnson grass and blue panic would be justified in this area, according to the agent. Seeding rates vary from one to six pounds per acre.

Sales—FORD—Service

Being a column in which the publisher just "blows off the steam."

By Willard Jones

ONE HAMLIN WOMAN recently returned from her vacation is reported to have gone into Waggoner Drug and asked Jerry:

"Have you anything that's good for mosquito bites on top of poison ivy over sunburn?"

DOUGLAS MEADOR writes an interesting and thought provoking column in The Matador Tribune every week. We lift the following words from a recent issue of the publication:

Frequently tempted, I have tried to avoid all forms of envy. After a lifetime of frustration I continue to believe I can have anything within reason if I will work hard enough for it.

I once worked hard for two years in an effort to acquire enough money to buy a Saxon roadster like one owned by an acquaintance.

It was during a period of drouth and my work was lost, but the Saxon owner must have failed to find happiness.

He shot a hole through his head one night.

A HAMLIN WISEACRE has come to a definite conclusion about the young folks of today. He says:

One reason so many children are seen on the streets at night is that they're afraid to stay home alone.

AFTER WEEKS of painstaking effort, a Stamford hunter taught his retrieving dog to bring back ducks by walking upon the surface of the water rather than swimming out after them.

He wished to show off this wonder dog to a Hamlin friend, so without a word about it they went hunting together out at the Paint Creek Lake.

When the owner shot his first duck, he sent the dog out after it. The dog walked lightly upon the water, retrieved the duck, and walked back to deposit the bird at his master's feet.

"Notice anything?" asked the master expectantly.

"Sure," answered the Hamlin friend. "That crazy dog of yours can't swim!"

THE WAY to have teeth with which you can crack nuts is to refrain from cracking nuts with your teeth, says The Transmitter, and continues:

The way to have a stomach in which you can put practically any kind of food is to refrain from putting practically any kind of food into your stomach.

The way to have eyes with which you can read fine print in a poor light is to refrain from reading fine print in a poor light.

The way to have friends who would give you the shirts off their respective backs is to refrain from asking them for their shirts.

The way to make friends with a traffic cop so that he will overlook slight infractions of the traffic rules is to avoid slight infractions of the traffic rules.

AN EXPRESSMAN was handling a parcel on which a label had been badly torn. He had been warned to pay strict attention to labels, so he tried to put the pieces of the label together, and this is what he finally got: HIT CAR AND WHEEL!

It was plain to see that this was not correct. Expressmen and postmen often have hard nuts to crack, for some people are careless when addressing letters and packages. But this expressman handled the parcel as directed, because he read the label correctly. What would you have done, and what was on the label originally?

(The expressman jumbled up the letters in putting the label together. It read originally, "Handle with Care!")

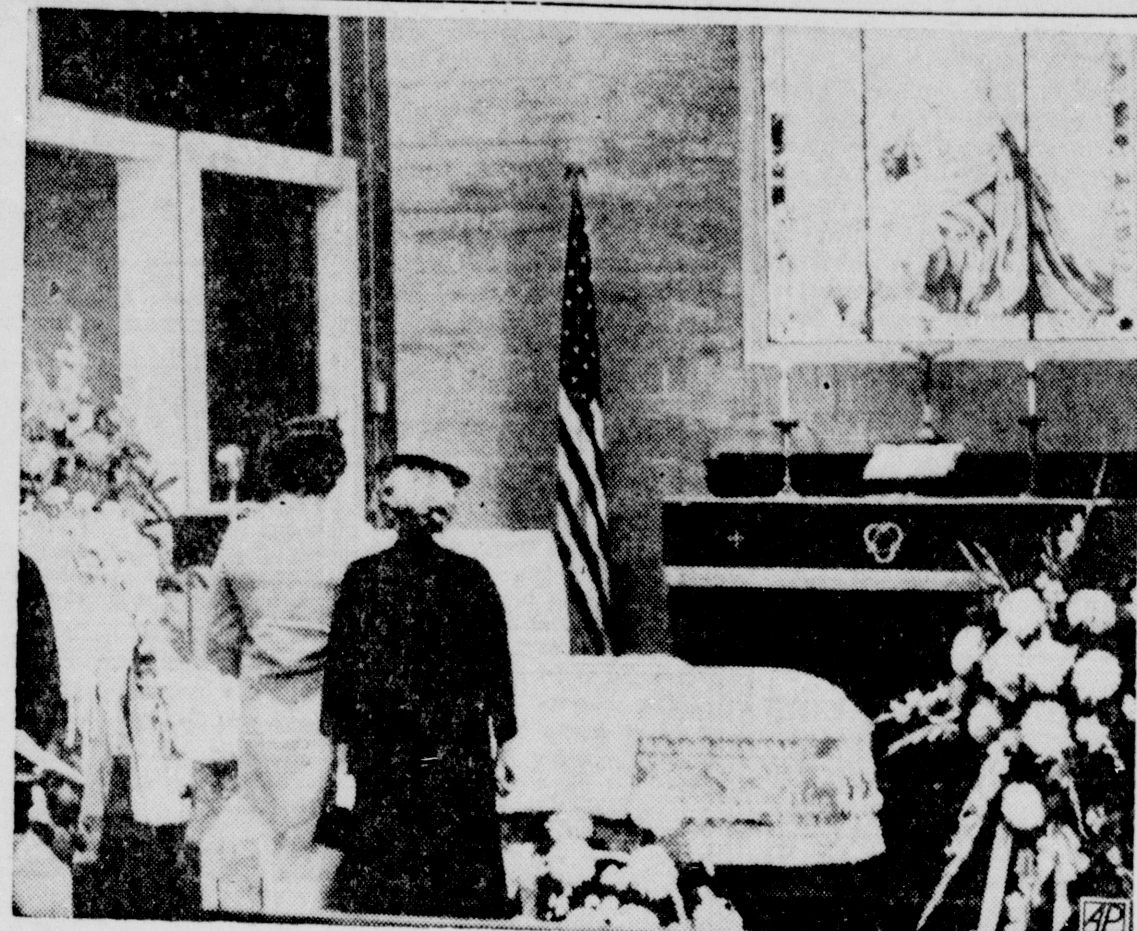

New Cub Scouts and Mothers Registered

Monthly pack meeting of the Hamlin Cub Scouts and their parents was held Monday night at the Primary School cafeteria.

The meeting was opened with the singing of "America." Cubmaster Eddie Jay gave the theme for the following year, entitled "Onward for God and My Country."

New den mothers and Cubs were registered.

Next meeting of the pack will be October 29, it was announced.

THE LATE LIES IN STATE—Two women pause to pay their respect as the body of Babe Didrikson Zaharias lay in state in the Bethlehem Lutheran Church at Beaumont where funeral services were held for the famed woman athlete who died after a long battle against cancer.

Homecoming Registration of HHS Exes Will Begin Monday

Replies Coming In by Scores from Farmer Students

Replies of intention to attend the second annual Hamlin High School homecoming are coming in by the score from exes scattered over several states, reports Mrs. Bill Shira, secretary of the HHS Ex-Students Association, sponsor of the get-together of former students of the school.

With several hundred more addresses available this year than last year's first homecoming, the ex-student group mailed out more than 1,700 double postcards announcing this year's celebration. The replies are coming in readily, the secretary reports.

Pre-registration of former students living in the Hamlin area will begin next Monday at the high school offices, according to Cliff Reynolds Jr., president of the ex-student association. He urges that everyone possible participate in the advance registration in order to avoid as much congestion on Friday at the registration of out-of-town attendants.

As outlined previously, homecoming festivities will get underway Friday afternoon at 3:30 with out-of-town registration. A football game between the Pied Pipers and the Colorado City Wolves will be featured at 8:00 o'clock. Following the game a coffee will be staged at the high school cafeteria.

Registration will continue Saturday morning at the high school building. Business and class meetings will be held in the auditorium at 9:30 a. m. At 1:00 p. m. a barbecue will be served at the cafeteria.

Wesley Nail Buys Interest in Insurance Agency This Week

Effective Monday, Wesley Nail became associated with the Turner-Hunter Insurance Agency. He has been business administrator at the Hamlin Memorial Hospital since January, 1950. His resignation at the hospital becomes effective October 15.

Nail's place at the hospital will be taken by Louie Cunningham, who has been laboratory technician at the hospital for three years. Mrs. Cliff Reynolds Jr. will become lab technician, having resigned her place of teaching in the Hamlin Schools.

Mrs. W. L. Hunter Jr., who has operated the insurance business for two years, will continue with the firm for some time. She has been in charge since the retirement due to health of J. C. Turner Sr.

A PROGRAM that is different is promised next Tuesday evening at the North Central Avenue Baptist Church when A. C. Wimpee (above), associate secretary of the Baptist Brotherhood of Texas will be featured. Films, music and other entertainment are scheduled at the session, to which the public is invited.

A. C. Wimpee Will Speak at Brotherhood Meet Next Tuesday

A. C. Wimpee, associate secretary of the Baptist Brotherhood of Texas, prominent personal relations man and layman, will be featured in a program for Jones County Baptist Brotherhoods at the North Central Avenue Baptist Church next Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock, according to Rev. Woodrow McHugh, pastor.

The program will include music, movie films, slides, film strips and other object lessons. The public is invited, Rev. McHugh declares.

Wimpee, who has appeared in Hamlin before, including an appearance at Hamlin High School, has spoken to over 850,000 students and teachers. He has been in every county in Texas and every state in the union as well as 17 foreign countries.

Much Small Grain Being Dry Planted in Territory

Another Producer Near Hamlin in Week's Spotlight

Second good well of oil production close to the city limits of Hamlin in recent weeks was reported first of the week in a Canyon sand producer two miles north of town.

This week's discovery well was completed on the W. C. Matchett tract in northeast Fisher County. It is Ab-Tex Production Company and Hill & Hill No. 1 W. C. Matchett. Location is two miles north of Hamlin in Section 183, Block 1, B. B. & C. Railway Company Survey.

The well had a daily potential of 266 barrels of 41-gravity oil flowing through a quarter-inch choke with 350 pounds tubing pressure.

It is producing from six perforations per foot at 4,125 1/2 to 4,151 feet. The section was treated with 750 gallons of mud acid and fractured. Casing is set at 4,289 feet and the hole bottomed at 5,435 feet. Gas-oil ratio was 650 to one.

C. The contest was the first of its kind ever held in the country.

Bank Deposits Holding Up Despite Continued Drouth

Despite the continued drouth that has plagued the Hamlin territory for several years, the financial stability of the community remains good, if the official bank statement of the Farmers & Merchants National Bank for September 26 is to be taken as a barometer.

Although deposits in the latest report of $4,344,074.41 total about $70,000 less than the June 30 report, the total is still above the total of a year ago of $4,195,883.83, recorded in the statement at the close of business October 5, 1955.

Loans, also a barometer of the economy of a community, also were down in the latest statement. They totaled $1,426,634.66 compared with a year ago total of $1,693,386.69.

Incidentally, deposits of five years ago were listed at $4,670,066.03.

Quick assets of the Hamlin bank in the September 26, 1956, statement included U. S. Government bonds of $1,429,416.77; CCC loans of $50,116.85; bills of exchange (cotton and grain), $113,925.31; and cash on hand and due from banks, $1,286,015.69.

On the liability side of the statement, capital and surplus are retained at $200,000. Undivided profits were listed at $18,076.16; and reserves showed at $6,958.55.

Ed Stewart Talks To Methodist Men Banquet Monday

One hundred and twenty-five people attended the Methodist Men ladies' night at the First Methodist Church Monday evening. Carl Murrell, president, presided.

After a fellowship meal in the basement, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Stewart of Abilene presented the program. The Stewarts gave their observations of a recent trip to Russia. They were the only American tourists going from Finland into Russia; however, they were joined with other American tourists once inside Russia.

The Stewarts related several things that impressed them during their tour, particularly the cleanliness of the cities—not even paper, cigarette butts, ice cream cones or other litter was to be found anywhere.

Their guides and the people themselves were very friendly, they said. In closing, Stewart gave their experience as they worshipped in a Baptist Church in Moscow. The people were hungry for the gospel, he declared, and the country, he predicts, will be ripe for missionary activity in the future. Everywhere there is building—factories, apartments, hotels, etc.

In the business session of the Monday meeting the Methodist Men issued a challenge to the women of the church for an attendance campaign for the Sunday evening worship services. The group having the least attendance will feed the winner group.

Hanes and Jay Made HHS Pipers of Week

Bobby Hanes and Jerry Jay were named Pipers of the week by students of Hamlin High School following last Friday's football game.

The Pipers of the week are selected by members of the football team and Pep Squad in popular voting. Those named reign for one week.

Acreage Reserve Takes Slice, But Planting Heavy

Six previous dry years in a row have failed to dampen the ardor of Hamlin area small grain growers, and thousands of acres of wheat land will be seeded to the small grains during the next few weeks.

Although hundreds of acres of wheat land have been put into the soil reserve sponsored by the Department of Agriculture, many thousands of acres of land still will be seeded in the section.

Dry sowing of small grains has been going on in a few areas of Jones County, according to Bill Lehmberg, county agent.

Recommended varieties of wheat for Jones County are Crockett, Westar, Concho, Comanche, Panco and Quana. Acceptable varieties are Wichita and Triumph.

Wheat is usually planted one to two inches deep at the rate of 30 to 45 pounds per acre.

The seed should be treated with one of the following, according to the manufacturers' instructions: Ceresan M, Ceresan M-2X or Panogen.

Recommended varieties of oats for fall sowing are Mustang, New Nortex and Fulltex.

For barley the recommended varieties are Cordova and Harvine.

Neinda Folks Will Reverse Styles at Saturday Gathering

One won't be able to tell the sex of attendants at the Neinda community meeting Saturday evening by the clothes they are wearing.

All men attendants will come dressed as women, and the women will wear the men's clothes for the evening. Non-conformists will be fined at the door as they enter for the evening's activities, which will get underway at 7:30 o'clock, according to community leaders.

Folks will bring sandwiches, and drinks can be purchased at the refreshment bar, it is announced.

"We are refusing to let the drouth blues get us down," states a community resident. "Come on and join us in the fun!"

Jones County Farm Bureau Names New Directors and Passes Resolutions

Discussion and adoption of some strongly worded resolutions were some of the main items of business for the county convention of the Jones County Farm Bureau, held Saturday evening at the high school auditorium at Anson.

Numbers of Hamlin area farmers were among attendants. The resolutions will be forwarded to the state convention of the Texas Farm Bureau, which convenes in Houston on November 12.

Resolutions adopted by the state convention will, in turn, be sent to the national convention, and the resolutions adopted there will become the policies of the American Farm Bureau for the ensuing year.

In other business members of the Jones County Farm Bureau elected six new directors to fill the terms of those expiring this year; heard a treasury report from J. H. Doty, secretary-treasurer of the organization; heard an office report from Harris Wright, service agent; selected Dale King and Jack Morrow as delegates to the state convention; and heard a general report from President R. J. Lefever.

New directors named to the county board include: Newman West from Precinct 1; Joe Benton from Precinct 2; Mack Claiburn and Randall Lefever from Precinct 3; and Leonard McCoy and M. E. Carothers from Precinct 4.

These men will serve for a two-year period. The remaining six members of the county board of directors will be replaced next year.

President Lefever expressed gratification that more farmers of Jones County are taking an interest in their organization, and urges every farmer, rancher and land owner in the county to take an active part.

The board of directors will continue to meet on the first Monday night of each month in the office at Anson. The meetings are open to other members as well.

Letter Writing Week To Be Observed by Hamlin Area People

National Letter Writing Week will again be celebrated in Hamlin and Texas during the week October 7 to 13, Postmaster Perry Sparks announced this week.

Commenting on the significance of National Letter Writing Week, Sparks pointed out that each year since 1938 this event has been observed as a reminder of the real meaning of a personal letter.

Emphasizing the traditional sanctity of the letter mail, Sparks reminded Hamlin residents that one of the basic American freedoms is the uncensored transmission of their first class mail. It is the most valuable possession of the citizens of a free country.

"We all know the human importance of letter writing," Sparks stated, "the way in which it holds scattered families together, of giving comfort and love and news to all the people of the land. But its value is immeasurably greater than that. Its implications are almost infinite.

"We in America have the privilege of uncensored and unlimited means of communication. With this in mind, I urge all citizens of the Hamlin area to join me in this national celebration. Let's make National Letter Writing Week for 1956 the greatest ever."

First Methodists Will Observe Laymen Day

Laymen's Day will be observed in the First Methodist Church, it is announced by the pastor, Rev. Darris L. Egger.

Special speaker for the morning worship service will be Alex Bickley, prominent attorney of Abilene and an outstanding Methodist layman of the area.

Officers for the Nodole 4-H Clubs and Anson Junior Club will be elected during the October series of meetings.

Estimated Four to Be Drafted from Area in November

About four Jones County men are scheduled to be included in the draft call for November, it is estimated on a pro rata basis of the state's call.

The state draft quota for November calls for 858 men, Colonel Morris S. Schwartz, state selective service director, said Thursday in a release to The Herald.

The quota of 858 for Texas compares with a call of 847 for October, previously announced. The November quota is the biggest monthly call received since December, 1955.

The November quota is the state's share of a national call of 17,000 men, all for the Army.

At the same time he announced the November induction quota, Colonel Schwartz also announced a November call on approximately half the state's local boards for 1,500 men to take pre-induction physical and mental examinations for future calls.

The November quota will be filled with men who are 22 years of age or older on November 1, with the exception of delinquents or volunteers, who may be younger. Colonel Schwartz said he expected the November call to be filled with volunteers and men

The new Mrs. Ellis chose for her going-away outfit a open blue suit with white accessories and wore the orchid from her bouquet.

"Hot Flashes Stopped" or strikingly relieved

in 63-80% of cases in doctors' tests

If you're miserable from the "hot flashes," and accompanying irritable, restless feelings of "change of life"—you may be suffering unnecessarily!

For... in tests by doctors... Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound and Tablets brought relief from such functional suffering to 63% and 80% (respectively) of the women tested! Complete or striking relief!

Yes! Research has proved these medicines thoroughly modern in action... has shown you where to look for relief from those distressing, nervous, "out of sorts" feelings of mid-life "change!"

So... Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—or new, improved Tablets with added iron! (Wonderful, too, for the functional pains of menstrual periods.)

It acts through a woman's sympathetic nervous system to relieve distress of those awful "heat waves!"

Cotton's All-Around Washability Makes It Decorator Favorite

Cotton's all-around washability and easy care have installed it as the overwhelming favorite among American housewives for home decorating.

A majority of homemakers polled by the U. S. Department of Agriculture have voted cotton as their favorite fiber for curtains, draperies, slip-covers, scatter rugs and bedspreads.

Eighty-one per cent of women who use slip-covers prefer cotton slip-covers, the government survey disclosed. Fifty-nine per cent prefer cotton for bedspreads, 37 per cent for curtains, 39 per cent for draperies, 81 per cent for scatter rugs, and 53 per cent for summer blankets. In each case, cotton's percentage was the highest of all fibers named.

The survey, released by the Department of Agriculture's Bureau of Agricultural Economics, showed that a majority of women who choose cotton do so because of cotton's laundering and cleaning properties.

Lions Club Hears Reports on Activities During Recent Weeks

Routine reports were heard by the Hamlin Lions Club when it met in weekly luncheon session Tuesday noon at the oil mill guest house.

Zone Chairman L. H. McBride reported on plans for the club year in the zone, which includes Lions Clubs of this area.

B. V. Newberry, member of the district governor's cabinet, gave a report on the recent ladies' night affair, which featured Lester Brooks of Iowa Park, the district governor.

President Edgar Duncan reported final sales in the recent broom campaign sponsored by the club totaled $1,067. The household articles were made in Fort Worth by sight-deficient people, and the local club shared in proceeds of the sales.

New club yearbooks, containing program and other information, were distributed.

Johnson is a demolition specialist in the battalion's Company B. He entered the Army in October, 1955, completed basic training at Fort Ord, California, and arrived in Europe last April. The 23-year-old soldier is a 1955 graduate of Texas Technological College and is a member of Alpha Zeta and Alpha Chi fraternities.

Plenty and indigence depend upon the opinion every one has of them; and riches, like glory or health, have no more beauty or pleasure than their possessor is pleased to lend them.—Michel E. de Montaigne.

FOLLOWED TO THE LETTER.

A new member of a wealthy suburban community after inviting a prominent local gourmet to dinner carefully instructed his new maid how to serve each course.

"Please remember to serve the fish whole, with tail and head, and a slice of lemon in the mouth," he concluded.

The maid, following instructions to the letter, bore the fish triumphantly to the table complete with tail and head, and in her mouth she carried a slice of lemon.

Stewart Declares Russia Is Clean In Talk at Rotary

"The United Soviet Socialist Republic (USSR) is the richest nation in the world," declared Ed Stewart, Abilene candy manufacturer, when he spoke last Wednesday noon at the weekly luncheon meeting of Hamlin Rotary Club at the oil mill guest house.

He went on to show that the country occupies more than one-tenth of the world's surface, and has more than 200,000,000 people, with another 1,000,000,000 satellites under them.

More than 12,000 of 500-acre collective farms are operated in Russia under deputy commissioners of agriculture. Much fine livestock for these farms has been bought by the government in America.

Leningrad and Moscow are almost spotless—no litter, no beggars. However, sheer nylon hose sell for $8 in American money, Stewart declared.

Highlight of the entire trip of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart to Russia was a visit to the Kremlin and Lenin's tomb, they averred.

Besides regular members, there were several invited guests at the luncheon meeting.

Methodists of Anson. Hamlin Set Contest

An overall church-wide attendance contest will begin this week between the First Methodist Church in Anson and the First Methodist Church in Hamlin. It is announced by the local pastor, Rev. Darris L. Egger. The contest will be based on total attendance of the morning and evening worship hours on Sunday, the Sunday school attendance, the mid-week service and the Methodist Men.

The rivalry will last through December. The losing church will then host the winning church to a fellowship feed and program.

The name Minnesota is derived from the two Sioux Indian words meaning "sky colored water."

Talk on Amendment To Feature P-TA Meet

An out-of-town speaker will talk on proposed constitutional amendment No. 4 when the Elementary Parent-Teacher Association meets this (Thursday) afternoon at 3:45 o'clock at the Primary School cafeteria, it is announced by P-TA officials.

Topic for the program is "We, the People, Support Our Teachers." Mrs. W. L. Smith will bring the thought for the day.

Entertainment for this second meeting of the school year will be furnished by students of the fourth and fifth grades.

I love these little people; and it is not a slight thing, when they, who are so fresh from God, love us.—Dickens.

Economy is half the battle of life; it is not so hard to earn money as to spend it wisely.—Richard Whately.

Mrs. Nellie Money Dies Friday After Brief Illness Here

Funeral services were conducted for Mrs. Nellie Elizabeth Money 81-year-old Hamlin housewife, at the First Baptist Church Sunday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock. Mrs. Money died Friday after an illness of about a week.

Officiating at the rites were Rev. Frank Foster of Aspermont and Rev. Woodrow McHugh, pastor of the North Central Avenue Baptist Church.

Mrs. Money was a native of Hunt County, having been born December 5, 1874, as the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Carter. She married L. E. Money on October 9, 1890, at Greenville. She had been a resident of the Hamlin community for 31 years. She was a member of the First Baptist Church.

Burial was in the Hamlin East Cemetery under the direction of Hamlin Funeral Home. Pallbearers were Johnny Hines, Sigmund Stovall, Ira Clements, A. C. Tidwell, H. A. Brown and Connie O'Neal.

The octogenarian is survived by four sons, Lee and Elan Money of Hamlin, H. I. Money of Dallas and Troy Money of Wickett; six daughters, Mrs. Hattie Richardson of Arlington, Mrs. Ollie Coker of Hendrix, Oklahoma, Mrs. Deborah Harold of Aspermont, Mrs. Vera Davis of Abilene, Pearl Money of Dallas and Mrs. Edna Minor of Hereford; 26 grandchildren and 21 great-grandchildren.

HOW'S THAT AGAIN, DOC?

"Don't worry about your son for one minute" the doctor reassured the anxious mother. "It's perfectly normal for him to like making mud pies—and just as much so if he sometimes tries to eat them."

"Well I don't think it's normal," snapped the mother, "and neither does his wife!"

Sorghum-Grass Hybrid Adapted to Area, Says Agent

Sorghum alnum, a new grass, is gaining the interest of farmers and ranchers of Jones County, according to Bill Lehmborg, county agent. It is a natural cross between Johnson grass and some unknown sorghum and was selected by J. R. Parodi in Argentina.

Sorghum alnum is similar in appearance to sudan and Johnson grass. It grows taller than either and has wider leaves. It is a perennial but probably will not persistently survive the winter in this area.

The Chillicothe and Lubbock experiment stations have been growing this grass for more than 10 years. It was not considered outstanding and was not increased by the Texas stations. Small scale grazing tests at Beeville indicate that it was little less palatable than common sudan. The seed shatter readily, making seed harvest a problem. The grass has pithy, non-sweet stalks.

Johnson grass-sorghum and Johnson grass-sudan hybrids with sweet juicy stems are being tested at Lubbock, but seed is not available this year.

Small scale trial plantings to compare the new grass with sudan, Johnson grass and blue panic would be justified in this area, according to the agent. Seeding rates vary from one to six pounds per acre.

You can pick your Ford tailored to your desires and your budget, too! Choose from nine Fairlane or Fairlane 500 models or from five Custom or Custom 300 models. Or take your pick from Ford's five longer, lower, new station wagons. Whichever model you select, you'll get a car that's been re-invented from the wheels up!

So there's the new kind of Ford. Big! Gracious! Spacious! A luxury car true—but one that any new-car buyer can easily afford. Come in! See what wonder-cars you can buy now at low Ford prices.
